

Emerge: The Luminary's Professional Development Series

Join us for the third and final event in the Fall 2023 Emerge Creative Professional Development Series at CAM on Wednesday, 12/13/23, at 6 p.m. for Emerge's final session with Sue Greenberg of the VLAA.

Sue Greenberg, executive director of Volunteer Lawyers and Accountants for the Arts (VLAA), will provide an overview of VLAA's legal and accounting services and professional development programs. You'll also learn about how you can protect your rights as an artist and develop sound business practices.

Register HERE

For more information on the seminar series, please contact Kellen at kellen@theluminaryarts.com.

About Emerge:

In 2022, The Luminary, in direct response to requests of the creative communities we serve, produced Emerge: a professional development workshop. This year, we are pleased to present the series in partnership with CAM that continues in 2023 and is held on each second Wednesday from 6 to 8 pm. The workshops, produced with local leaders in the field, provide emerging artists with vital tools and inside knowledge of the professional practices that go into exhibiting and selling art, managing creative business, and overall artistic development.

Tickets are free, with an option to donate. All donations go back to supporting The Luminary.