

AMOS PAUL KENNEDY, Jr.: PRINTING THE TRUTH (HOW TRANS IS YOU?)
6.6.24 at Akhsó Gallery at ATNSC: Center for Healing + Creative Leadership

Join us at the opening of Detroit based printmaker Amos Kennedy Jr.'s exhibition
PRINTING THE TRUTH (HOW TRANS IS YOU?).

__about the artist

Amos Paul Kennedy Jr. (born 1948) is an American printer, book artist and papermaker best known for social and political commentary, particularly in printed posters. One critic noted that Kennedy is "...unafraid of asking uncomfortable questions about race and artistic pretension." (Wikipedia)

Amos has been known to describe himself as "a humble Negro printer."

Amos' work has been in numerous exhibitions at galleries and museums. Over 6,000 homes get to experience his love imbued in print daily. His work is in collections such as the Newberry Library and the Library of Congress.

The last time our city experienced his practice was 1979. Join us in welcoming Amos back to our community, where he once lived and where his son was born at a birth center that once existed in our neighborhood.

__learn more about Amos Paul Kennedy, Jr.:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Amos\_Paul\_Kennedy\_Jr.

<http://kennedyprints.com>

__article: "Amos Paul Kennedy, Jr. and the Democracy of Printing"(2023, HyperAllergic)
<https://hyperallergic.com/.../amos-paul-kennedy-jr-and.../>

__ATNSC: Center for Healing + Creative Leadership is an interdisciplinary socially engaged + artist-led, retreat, residency, research and exhibition space in the Buckeye-Shaker neighborhood of Cleveland, Ohio sited in a residential home.

This project includes support from Saint Luke's Foundation.